The nett difference between the Comptroller's figures and ours is Rs. 421-15-4 which has since been added by the Asst. Genl. Mgrs — by Sampson — Rs. 1st Lead — & another Rs. 3 also omitted in his original Statement a sum of Rs. 6.9.00 which has now added in pencil in the Comptroller's Clerk's (Stat: C).

The Rs forms as now amended appears to be correct & may be sent to the Comp: for verification

(c) The Govt of India say that the surplus of the Assigned Tract is "prospective". For the largest source of revenue is Excise. Have we anything to show whether this is likely to increase much? If not ask Col: Macgrath &c.

(d) Let me have a statement showing since rendition 86/87 receipts, expenditure & net receipts under each head of revenue.

How is the large rise in "refunds and drawbacks" to be explained in the expenditure of 1886-'87.

In comparing the Statement of Contributions & the entered in the pro formâ account for 1888-89.
with the figures shown in the account for the previous year, on the same account it will be seen that there is a large difference between the two the totals for 1888-89 being very much in excess of that for 1887-88 This is explained as follows: The

Sd. is not quite complete yet.

figures for 1887-88 were furnished by the Auth: Gen: Treasuries and apparently represent the contribution chargeable monthly if this is correct the items as shown in the pro forma account for 1887-88 should be Rs. 8,985 instead Rs. 748-12-0 under C. for Sh. expenditure and Rs. 19,995-3-0 instead of Rs. 1666-4-0 under Imperial Receipts

It seems strange that neither the Comp: India treasuries nor the Auckland treasuries noticed the error which may now be rectified and a revised account furnished to the Govt: of India thro' the Comp: India treasuries. Submitted

To

The Secretary to the Govt. of India,

Foreign Department.

Sir,

Referring to your letter No.2902.I. dated the 27th August 1885, I have the honor to submit, for the information of the Govt. of India, a copy of the pro formâ accounts of the revenua and expenditure of the C and M Station of Bangalore for the years 1887-88 and 1888-89.

2. The account for the year 1887-88 has already been furnished to the Foreign Departt. with this office letter No.3805 / 2A-5 of the 24th October 1889; but as it was subsequently discovered to oe incorrect owing to the pensionary contribution leviable per month having been shewn in it instead of that for the whole year, a revised account is now forwarded to be suostituted for that sent with this office letter cited aoove.

3. The accounts enclosed have been verified by the Comptroller of India Treasuries, and the pension liability shown in them has been calculated in accordance with the instructions contained in your letter No.516-G.dated the 6th April 1891.

Sir,

Se 87

In reply to your letter No.71.I. dated the 6th January 1893, I have the honor to explain the circumstances under which the submission of the pro forma accounts of the revenue and expenditure of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore for the years 1887-88 and 1888-89 was very much delayed.

Se 37 A

2. To carry out the modified instructions contained in para 3 of your letter No.1558.G. dated the 15th August 1888 as regards the pension charges to be included in the pro forma account, the several officers concerned had to be called upon to furnish the necessary particulars for the preparation of the pensionary statement, which when completed in communication with the Resident's Treasury, and the Accountant General, Madras, was incorporated in the account for that year [1887-88] and sent on to the Comptroller of India Treasuries on the 8th May 1889

Se 49.

The account was returned by him finally revised with his letter of 23rd September 1889 and the statement was then submitted to the Foreign Department with this office letter-

No.3805-2A5 dated 24th October 1890

Se. 61

3. When the preparation of the pro-forma account for 1888-89 was taken in hand, some difficulty was experienced in obtaining information about the pensionary contribution under the modifications made in the rules of the Civil Pension Code [Civil Service Regulations] as regards the rate of contribution leviable from officers in foreign service. The "assumed pay" on which the pensionary contribution had to be calculated was not easily ascertainable in the case of many officers and this led to a lengthened correspondence between the Accountant General, Madras, the Comptroller of India Treasuries and this office. When the required particulars were at last obtained the pro-forma account for 1888-89 was prepared, and forwarded to the Comptroller for verification on the 25th November 1890. During the period of its verification, certain questions raised by the Accountant General, Madras, were, under the advise of the Comptroller of India Treasuries, referred to the Govt. of India, and their orders were received in your letter No.518.G. dated 8th April 1891. As the Govt. of India wanted these instructions adopted in the case of those pro-forma accounts that had not till then been passed, and as it was also found that an error had been made in the account for 1887-88, opportunity was taken to revise the ~~the~~ accounts for 1887-88 and 1888-89 in communication with the Accountant General of Madras, and these were submitted to the Government of India with my letter under

4. As regards the account for 1889-90, I may mention that it has already been prepared and passed on for verification to the Comptroller of India Treasuries ~~for verification and~~ who has asked for an explanation of certain items, ~~and~~ which has been referred to the Accountant General at Madras.
